DEFINITION OF A CLUB

by St. Andrews Golf Club, Scotland

A Club is a haven of refuge and accord in a world torn by strife and discord. A Club is a place where kindred spirits gather to have and make friends. A Club is a place of courtesy, good breeding and good manners. A Club is a place expressly for camaraderie, merriment, goodwill, and good cheer. A Club humbles the mighty, draws out the timid, and casts out the sorehead. And a Club is one of the noblest inventions of mankind.

1. FRIENDS INVITING FRIENDS ENVIRONMENT

We Partner with the Board of Governors, Ambassador Committee, and All Club Committees in the Creation of an "Effective and Inspirational" Friends Inviting Friends Environment

A Club Full of Friends does not happen by accident. It happens because the right people; our members, our Board, and our team believe that the roster belongs to the membership and take that responsibility personally.

A. Invitation Design & Physical Standards

- Invitation cardstock and envelopes have been designed and approved
- Approved invitation templates exist on your computer for both the Member invitation and the Ambassador invitation
- Any change of the templates copy is always approved by the Membership Regional
- The invitation is sanctioned by Club leadership, with their names printed on it
- The GM and Department heads know where to find the templates and can print an invitation when you are not available
- All Club Team members, Board and Committees know where to send members to get their invitation
- All invitations are presented enclosed in envelopes with the invited friends' name handwritten on it
- A postage stamp (not a postage machine) is used when mailing the invitation

B. Invitation as a Required Gate

- All invitees are presented with the appropriate Invitation
- The preferred membership offer is not discussed prior to any Invitation discussion and presentation
- Membership does not advance to application without an invitation presented prior to joining

C. Annual Club Team Training & Board and Committee Education

- Department heads and front-of-house staff complete an annual Membership by Invitation strategy and processes refresher, and are educated on "private club language"

- The Board, Ambassador Committee, and Club Sports Committees each participate annually in a Membership by Invitation presentation and confirm their understanding of the strategy, processes and importance
- The Board and Committees understand the importance of their support and attendance of member events

D. Ongoing Visibility & Daily Education Plan

- An annual comprehensive plan exists for educating and re-educating members on their invitation
- That plan is executed daily at the Club through:
 - Personal one-on-one conversations with members
 - Bi-weekly member communications
 - Clubhouse signage (posters, scan cards, tent cards, golf cart signage, television monitors)
 - A physical invitation on every sports desk
 - Desk staff trained on their role in showing the invitation to members daily
 - A daily club walk-through by the Enrollment Director to confirm collateral is in place
 - Entrance signage elevating Membership by Invitation for members and guests

E. Invitation Language & New Member Culture

- Invitation language ("you are invited") is used for all member events
- New members are reminded their invitation is waiting in the membership office

F. Financial Literacy Education (Board & Membership)

- There is consistent education for the Board and general membership on the historical attrition and member replacement needs of the Club
- There is consistent education on the importance of a full dues line (Cap) for the continual improvement of the Club and its amenities and services

- The GM verifies weekly the effective use of the CRM program by the Enrollment Director

2. ENROLLMENT PROCESS

We Partner with Members by Committing to an "Effective" Enrollment Process

The enrollment process is not a sales process. It is a cultural one. Every prospective member who walks through our doors deserves a prideful, personal, and seamless experience that makes them feel expected, welcomed, and excited about what their life at this Club will look like

B. Membership Collateral & Market Awareness

- Membership information documents exist (physical and electronic)
- Membership information documents reflect the Club's branding quality, and use language that reflects the Club's culture
- A competitive market analysis exists, is distributed, and is updated annually to track our competition

C. Code Blue — Standard & Training

- A Code Blue is ONLY scheduled after an invitation has been extended
- The team understands the distinction between a Code Blue and a Tour

- The team is trained annually (with a GM-led refresh) on the why and how of a Code Blue
- Department heads are timely and effective in cascading that training to their own staff

D. Code Blue — Execution

- Code Blue electronic alerts go out to every department head and front-of-house staff prior to the visit date
- The Code Blues have enough detail for the team to have pre-knowledge of the prospect and sponsoring member

- The Enrollment Director walks the Club each morning to confirm it's show-ready and reminds each department of that day's code blues

- Making or exceeding monthly membership goal is celebrated in staff meetings
- The department heads celebrate with their staff when membership goals are achieved

3. SPONSORSHIP CULTURE

We Partner with All Members Through an "Effective" Sponsorship Culture

4. OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE

We Partner with Members and Our Team Members, Committing to a Standard of Operational Excellence

Operational Excellence is not a department. It is a daily decision made by every person on the team from the moment the Club opens its doors. The standard is not set by the busiest day or the best event; it is set by every ordinary Tuesday when no one is watching.

A. Leadership & Standard-Setting

- The GM owns and leads the Private Club Culture and sets the standards of Operational Excellence for the Club team
- The current and new Club team is educated on the Value of a Member equation and understands the financial weight of every member they serve

- Every Member, Every Guest, Every Day
- All department heads understand what "Show Ready" means for their department

- Journey Mapping results are discussed in team meetings and used as a training tool across all departments
- Future Journey Mappings will be scheduled for the future
- We look for the Intangibles in our People: attitude, smile, appearance, and lead by example

5. RETENTION STRATEGY

We Partner with Members and Our Team Members to Create an "Effective and Inspirational" Retention Strategy Driven by a Detailed Recognition Plan

Retention is not a strategy that lives in the Membership office. It lives in every department, every interaction, and every moment a member feels seen, known, and valued at their Club. A member who feels that way never looks for a reason to leave.

A. Leadership & Attrition Ownership

- The General Manager owns the retention strategy
- The GM has a retention plan in place and executes the process with the Club team
- The GM and Club team are trained to understand the Club's attrition rate — why members leave, what's within the team's control, and the plan to improve it
- Resignation due to non-use is treated as a failure of connection

B. New Member Journey Framework

- The New Member Journey Map is the team's retention framework for new members

- The GM verifies that each department has effective orientations to meet, welcome, and connect new members to its specific area, programs, and activities

F. Recognition Modeled for the Team

- Planned Personal Pleasant Surprises are executed for the Club team in the same manner team members are expected to recognize members
- Recognition is modeled from the top down and never asked of staff who haven't experienced it themselves

6. BOARD OF GOVERNORS

We Partner with Members by Working with an "Effective" Board of Governors

The Board of Governors is to partner with club management to create the very best club experience, every day, for members. It is the primary priority of the Board of Governors to perpetuate the value of the club through "Membership by Invitation," and to cause the membership at large to embrace the responsibility of sponsorship to fill the club's roster openings, for the good of all members.

- The Board attends major Club membership events
- The Board participates in publicly recognizing and celebrating members who invite and sponsor friends into the Club
- The Board participates in the recognition and celebration of loyal, tenured members

D. Feedback & Accountability

- The Board partners with Club management on an annual member survey and discusses year-over-year results
- The Board understands the need for and supports an annual Team Member survey

7. AMBASSADOR COMMITTEE

We partner with Members through the establishment of an “Effective” Ambassador Committee.

Connection is not a welcome packet and a handshake. It is the moment new members walk into the Club and already knows someone who is happy to see them. The Ambassador Committee is what makes the difference.

A. Committee Structure & Purpose

- The Club has an active Ambassador Committee with a Member Chairman
- The Committee has an active partnership with Club staff, the Board of Governors, Club Committees, and the Member Sponsor to cause happy, well-connected new members
- The committee closely represents all demographics of the membership

B. Selecting & Onboarding the Chairman and Committee

- The "right" Chairperson is found and represents someone who supports and participates in the membership culture
- The Chairman is named prior to the committee members
- Committee mission, objectives, and responsibilities are discussed in detail with the proposed Chairman prior to the first Ambassador meeting

- The Ambassadors are educated on the New Member Journey Map and their partnership in it

F. Monthly Meeting Content

- All meetings have a fun, themed atmosphere to keep energy high
- All meetings include a business portion covering the newest members and their activities with Ambassadors

- A procedure for timely updates is in place, and Ambassadors know how to use it
- Ambassadors understand they may assist at major member events

I. Ambassador-Led New Member Programming

- Ambassadors plan and host events and activities for new members
- The Club adds these events to its calendar and helps implement them in partnership with the Committee

- The Ambassador Committee — not the Club — is the official host for all new-member-specific events

J. Ambassador Invitation — Authorization & Use

- Ambassadors have a Club-sanctioned committee Invitation, which holds a preferred membership offer and allows a new homeowner to meet with the Enrollment Director and explore the Club
- A full understanding of how to use the Ambassador invitation extends across the Ambassador Committee, the Board of Governors, all Club Committees, and the Club Membership team
- The Committee gives blanket authorization to the Enrollment Director to issue the invitation on their behalf when appropriate
- The Enrollment Director pre-qualifies the new homeowner and schedules a Code Blue
- Ambassadors host the Code Blues while new homeowners explore and consider membership
- Ambassadors and Enrollment Director help find a sponsor for the new homeowner

8. PARTNERSHIP STRATEGIES

We Work with Members Through "Effective" Partnership Strategies

When members can see the direct connection between a full roster and a better Club, the membership strategy stops being something the team manages and starts being something every member owns.

A. Membership

- We build our membership strategies around the outcomes of building a Club Full of Friends.
- We seek special ways to recognize and reward our Sponsoring members that partner with the Club to reach a Full with a Wait List Status – Partners Invitational and Sponsor Clubs.
- We focus on making sure Members see tangible benefits that membership success brings.
- We should always tie any improvements (capital or operational) to our membership success.
- We highlight and recognize our Sponsoring members and Tenured members.
- We highlight and promote the no assessment advantage with our Clubs.

B. Active Member Committees

- We partner with committees to assist us in providing a high NPS score and improved levels of member satisfaction within the Club.
- Committees are asked to partner with management by providing valuable feedback on what they hear and see at the Club. We encourage each to report things immediately and not wait for an official meeting so we can be diligent in any corrections if needed.
- Each committee lead will work with a specific department head to set priorities and build goals and action plans for any given year.
- We depend on our committee members to disseminate information within their groups and spheres of influence within the Club.
- Each committee understands that a full membership roster is the key to maximizing the potential of any Club.

C. Financial Partnership & Shared Ownership

- Members feel a shared ownership of their Club's financial success because of transparency and effective communication.

- Although we do not share financials in all cases, we will be transparent as to the Clubs potential and areas we must improve to maximize our opportunities for the Club.
- Our member partners understand where capital dollars come from to improve their Club.
- We teach our team members' sound financial stewardship and being effectively efficient with our members dues dollars.
- There is consistent messaging around the members' "wish list" and how all things are possible with a full complement of members.
- The Club consistently displays "dues dollars at work" signage near improvement projects promoting the value of sponsorship.
- We create strategic vendor partnerships to enhance our member value and special offerings.

D. Feedback & Accountability

- Member surveys are conducted annually.
- Survey results are analyzed through the committees and used to drive decisions by the GM and Board of Governors.
- Members are made aware of their survey results and see communications addressing the strategic plans to act on them.
- Club team surveys are conducted annually, with results discussed and used to drive decisions by the GM and Department Heads.
- Performance reviews are done annually to elevate the quality of our execution as a team.
- The GM and Regional Manager conduct "in-house inspections" periodically to continually strive for high service and member experience standards.

9. VALUE/VALUABLE CREATION

We Are Consistent in Our Approach to "Effective" Pricing and Value Creation in Our Clubs

Value asks "what am I getting for what I am paying?" Valuable asks "what would I do without this place?" Every pricing decision, every event, and every member interaction is an opportunity to move members from one question to the other.

A. Pricing Strategy & Review

- Club management conducts annual and ongoing reviews of all pricing, including food and beverage menus, catering, and outside tournaments
- Pricing reviews in food & beverage include input from Food & Beverage regional
- Member pricing is structured to cause "ALL" members to use the Club
- Value dining nights and happy hour pricing are in place
- Consistent Value member hosted guest days are offered
- Merchandise buyer's programs or member pricing are used effectively

- The Club completes an annual competitive analysis of initiation fees and dues to know where it stands relative to competitors
- The right pricing supports the growth and retention of the Club

B. The "Value vs. Valuable" Standard

- The General Manager knows the definition of value versus valuable, and consistently educates the Club team, Board, and Club Committees on the distinction

C. Calendar & Programming Value

- There is an annual calendar planning meeting for member events, activities, and programming
- A master calendar is visible and accessible to the Club team
- The calendar represents a high perceived "value" for members, causing events and programming to be full
- The calendar makes the Club "valuable" to members by offering a variety of fun activities across all Club demographics
- The Club is consistent with its calendar offerings, making it easier for members to plan their schedules around Club activities
- The Club has strategic New Member benefits that immediately add value to a new membership

D. Usage Monitoring & Re-Engagement

- Member usage reports are pulled at least quarterly to identify non-use members, with a plan in place to connect them

E. Palmer Advantage and The Network

- Understand Palmer Advantage's benefits well enough to pair them with what a Member cares about. A feature only becomes meaningful when it connects to how that Member actually lives
- Keep Palmer Advantage in the new Member enrollment process. Making its benefits part of what a member gets here strengthens new enrollments and enriches what the Club has to offer
- Deliberately include Palmer Advantage in new Member onboarding and orientation. A Member who learns about it by accident, or not at all, never gets the value they were given
- Keep Members aware of Palmer Advantage through regular communications, the website, and other materials. Awareness is what turns a benefit Members have into a benefit they use

F. Demographic Strategic Planning

- Club management and the Board know the Club's demographics and use that information for strategic planning

G. Outcomes

- Members feel a strong return on investment at the Club, and the Club's retention rate reflects it
- Most members have "My Club" moments because of value-driven calendars and how "valuable" the Club is as a result

10. COMMUNITY RELATIONS

We Partner "Effectively" Within Each Club Community

The Club does not exist inside its gates. It exists inside the lives of the people who live, work, and raise their families in the community around it. A Club that understands this will never struggle to find its next member.

A. Positioning & Identity

- The Club is positioned as a good partner within the community
- The Club is essential to the community's identity
- The Club is considered a "safe haven" for members during times of discord
- The Club participates in major community events to support where its members live

B. Community Engagement & Visibility

- The Club partners with members to host non-profit events that support members' charitable causes
- The Club hosts an annual community event so members can showcase their club
- The Club's calendar of events is consistently featured on social media
- Members testimonials are featured on social media

C. New Homeowner & Realtor Pipeline

- All new homeowners in the community are identified monthly, via an outside database or through a member realtor
- Strong relationships have been built, and continue to be built with member and area realtors
- An Ambassador Invitation is issued to all new homeowners, giving them access to explore the Club
- Ambassadors are assigned as hosts to new homeowners as they explore the Club, consider membership and identify a sponsor
- The Club has a good partnership with the community HOA
- There is an assigned HOA liaison contact responsible for the HOA relationship, so it doesn't rely on informal goodwill

D. Member-Driven Invitation Strategy

- The Club has an effective strategy to remind and prompt current members to invite their neighbors to consider membership
- The Club has an effective strategy for the Members who work for or own businesses within the community to invite and sponsor work colleagues or clients
- There is a consistent, strong membership pipeline sourced from the community
- Many members talk about "my club" to their friends and neighbors
